Amazing April! Tunesday was designed to introduce the residents to music that they may not have previously heard and it has varied greatly over the last month. We started with some country music which had a surprisingly positive response, through to the Julia Donaldson song collection with songs based on Julia Donaldson's best-loved picture books, including Room on the Broom, The Snail and the Whale, The Stick Man, and The Gruffalo. This went down a treat with all of the residents!

James, Holly, Chloe and Amy headed for Wakehurst Place and had great fun as they walked the Twits activity trail through the stunning spring landscape. They rummaged through Mr Twit's beard and helped worms escape wormy spaghetti before having lunch overlooking the croquet lawn. Magic was in the air as the residents turned their hands to some spellbinding tricks. There were disappearing coffee cups, coins going through glass bottles and lots of other tricks. James particularly wowed the crowds with his money printing machine. Everyone would like to get their hands on one of those!

Our incredibly talented Support Worker, Grainne, led the residents in a brilliant innovative dance workshop using beanbags, scarves hoops and even a parachute to help the residents see their movements and enjoy the feeling.

case. The files came all the way from Norway as they needed the expertise of the Super Detective himself. We are pleased to say that the case was solved, and the perpetrators were dealt with. We have heard that Detective Zambito is so great at solving cases that effort, we were able to get the funds and complete this. But as is often the way with essential facilities, one fix revealed others: a failing chemical dosing machine and a hidden underfloor leak have caused fresh challenges, meaning more time out of the pool and even more funds needed. Despite this, we remain determined. Every moment our residents spend in the hydro pool improves their physical health and mental wellbeing. It's central to helping them live fuller, more joyful lives—something at the heart of everything we do. can truly make a difference, we'd love to hear from you.

Detective Zambito was back on the case this week helping to solve an old mass murder his agents are discussing the film rights for the next case. Watch this space! Finally, Mark and Saleem had a blast on their adventure to Bubble Planet in London. The whole experience was a delightful sensory journey that everyone enjoyed. With eight different sensory stations to explore, plus a giant ball pit and exciting games, there was never a dull moment. The walk through lights were an absolute hit with the residents. Making Waves at Bevern View Our much-loved hydrotherapy pool at Bevern View has long been one of the most important spaces for our residents. For people who are profoundly disabled the chance to be supported in water — free to move, stretch, and simply be — is nothing short of After 14 years of use, the pool recently needed urgent re-tiling, and thanks to a huge
